of the Aruba Tourism Authority.

January 1 | NEW YEAR'S DAY

Aruba welcomes the New Year with traditional music and an amazing island-wide display of fireworks. With the pop of the champagne cork at midnight, troupes of traveling musicians, known as “Dande” groups, brighten the New Year with song, bestowing blessings of goodwill and prosperity upon the local community. Aruba’s joyous holiday atmosphere can be enjoyed with just a simple evening on the beach under the stars and fireworks, or at one of the glitzy gala receptions held at various island resorts.

January-February | ARUBA'S 62ND CARNIVAL CELEBRATION

Aruba’s biggest party of the year is a month long celebration consisting of festive “jump-ups” (street parties), spectacular parades, and musical events. Dazzling costumes and music play a central role in events ranging from the queen elections to the Grand Parades, which wind their way down the streets of San Nicolas and Oranjestad to the delight of thousands of spectators. The Grand Parade in Oranjestad will take place February 15, 2016.

January 2 | ARUBA'S TORCH PARADE

Originally organized by the Tivoli Club, Aruba’s oldest social club, the Torch Parade is now the official opening parade on the Carnival organizer’s (SMAC) schedule. The tradition continues with bright lights leading the way down the streets of Oranjestad. The parade begins at 8 p.m. and sets the pace for the festivities to come in the following weeks.

January 15 | CHILDREN'S & YOUTH CARNIVAL QUEEN ELECTION

Carnival excitement builds as Aruba elects its first queens of the season. Contestants in the Children’s Carnival Queen Election are 6-9 years of age. Youth Carnival Queen contestants are aged 13-17. All demonstrate their Carnival spirit through dance performances, speeches, and Carnival shows. Venue: Aruba Entertainment Center at 7:00 p.m.

January 22 | CARNIVAL QUEEN AND MRS. CARNIVAL ELECTION

During a fun-filled event, Aruba elects its two most important Carnival representatives: the Aruba Carnival Queen and Mrs. Carnival. Contestants of the Aruba Carnival Queen

Election are between the ages of 17 and 25, while the Mrs. Carnival contestants are more experienced participants—young at heart and full of pride—representing districts, schools, and social clubs on the island. Marked by lavish production numbers, the election is judged by a panel of local and international judges. Highlights of this festive election event include skits and joyful displays of Carnival costumes and dance. Venue: Aruba Entertainment Center at 7:30 p.m.

January 23 | GRAND FINAL TUMBA CONTEST

Originally from Africa with a Caribbean influence, the tumba music played during the Carnival has the rhythm of the “tambu” which is a tambour with a 6/8 beat. This event features local bands and singers competing for the Tumba King or Queen title with their original musical compositions and lyrics. Venue: Carnival Village at 8 p.m.

January 24 | CHILDREN'S CARNIVAL PARADE IN SAN NICOLAS

Aruba’s youngest Carnival enthusiasts take center stage as they parade down the streets of San Nicolas dressed in colorful costumes representing various themes. The parade starts at noon in downtown San Nicolas.

January 25 | BETICO CROES DAY

Aruba pays tribute to its greatest statesman on his birthday. The late Gilberto Francois “Betico” Croes who obtained Aruba’s “Status Aparte” (separate status) within the Dutch Kingdom. This official holiday features various cultural and sporting events, as well as popular games held at various venues on the island.

January 25 | BETICO CROES MEMORIAL 10K RUN & 5K FUN WALK

Calling all runners! Betico Croes’ hometown of Santa Cruz sponsors an amateur road race through the hilly, scenic terrain of that area. The circular route takes runners through residential neighborhoods and back to the main intersection of Santa Cruz. Avoiding the hotter hours of the day, the starting pistol sounds at 6:00 p.m. Open registration through IBISA at Tel. (297)-582-4987, Fax (297)-583-6478, or ibisaaruba@gmail.com.

January 30 | JOUVERT MORNING

An early-morning open invitation to Aruba's largest "jump-up" is extended to Carnival enthusiasts throughout the island. Popularly known as the "pajama party," thousands of people gather in San Nicolas to follow the various live-music caravans down the city streets. Set the alarm clock! This exciting jump-up begins at 4 a.m. and continues until sunrise.

January 30 | ARUBA'S LIGHTING PARADE

Aruba's favorite evening Carnival parade is a visual treat. Thousands of tiny lights are incorporated into costumes, road pieces, and floats, heightening the dramatic effect of an already stunning and creative display. Live bands accompany the various participating Carnival groups. Held in downtown Oranjestad, the parade begins at 8 p.m.

January 31 | CHILDREN'S GRAND CARNIVAL PARADE IN ORANJESTAD

The largest children's parade of the season includes all of the island's various Carnival groups coming together to form Aruba's 37th Children's Grand Carnival Parade. Hundreds of children enjoy the opportunity to show off their dancing skills and colorful costumes. Held in downtown Oranjestad, the event begins at 1 p.m.

January 31 | OLD MASK PARADE AND BURNING OF KING MOMITO

Children's Carnival parades comes to an official end by burning of "King Momito." This is preceded by a parade throughout the streets of Oranjestad. The parade starts at 8 p.m.

February 4 | SAN NICOLAS LIGHTING PARADE

Although not as extravagant as the Oranjestad version of the parade, the San Nicolas Lighting Parade is no less jubilant in its presentation of dance, music, and Carnival spirit. The parade starts at 8 p.m.

February 6 | SAN NICOLAS GRAND CARNIVAL PARADE

This is a prelude to the Grand Carnival Parade in Oranjestad. Local musicians create an exceptional ambiance in San Nicolas by playing their latest Carnival hits to the delight of hundreds of marchers dressed in resplendent costumes. Beautifully decorated themed floats accompanied by their floor members parade through the streets of San Nicolas until sunset. This parade starts at noon in San Nicolas.

February 7 | ARUBA'S 62ND GRAND CARNIVAL PARADE

The largest Carnival parade is the Grand Parade through Oranjestad, held on the Sunday before Ash Wednesday. This parade is filled with unforgettable music, spectacular floats, and original costumes decorated with colorful stones, sequins, and feathers, creating a unique display. This event starts at 10 a.m. in Oranjestad and continues into the early evening hours.

February 8 | CARNIVAL MONDAY

Official holiday.

February 8 | OLD MASK PARADE & BURNING OF KING MOMO

Carnival 62 comes to an official end on the eve of Ash Wednesday with the burning of "King Momo." This is preceded by a parade throughout the streets of San Nicolas. The parade starts at 8 p.m. at Joe Laveist to Carnival Village.

February 10 | ASH WEDNESDAY

This Christian event is prominently marked on the island at our many Catholic churches and begins the official start of the Lenten season. Locally, Ash Wednesday also represents the end of the Carnival season.

In 2017 and 2018, the Grand Parades will take place on Sunday, February 26, and Sunday, February 11, respectively. Contact the Aruba Carnival Organizer (SMAC) at Tel. (297) 592-8792 or info@smacaruba.com for additional information.

March

March 18 | NATIONAL FLAG AND ANTHEM DAY

A strong sense of pride is displayed each year as Arubans celebrate their “Status Aparte” and the Flag and Anthem Day. An impressive folkloric production marking the holiday is held each year at Plaza Betico Croes in Oranjestad. This official holiday also features many cultural events showcasing the local gastronomy of Aruba, as well as sporting events and organized games for both adults and kids around the island.
